National & International Winners " GovHack Hackathon The elderly who have been past carers for children personally can now better engage with the community by sharing their time in the gig economy to help take care of children. It takes a village to raise a child, and Little Play Space includes people who would otherwise feel isolated as their family grow and move away. Contact us " GovHack Hackathon Past media coverage is at GovHack in the news. Competition hosting and general enquiries. General information about the competition can be found here. For specific enquiries about hosting events, please contact our national competition director. Tips from past winners " GovHack Hackathon When you come to an event like GovHack, Marco urges you to go for something really good, that ads value to society. Some people just come for the food. It doesn't matter if you win, although that would be great, it's better to contribute to society if you can.

TasPast | GovHack Hackerspace 2017 The easy way to trace your family history - TasPast brings together all the genealogical databases held by LINC Tasmania, allowing you to find everything we know about a past Tasmanian: birth, deaths, marriages, divorces, convict history, arrival and departure and much more. Participating " GovHack Hackathon Each GovHack location will have a Local Spirit of GovHack prize for the team or individual that displays the greatest spirit of GovHack, aka the best "hacker" ethos. This means the team who best helped others, shared, learned or applied their skills creatively or cleverly. GovHack | Hackerspace Having noticed this to be one of the most salient problems across the community sector over the past decade, we propose a system that would facilitate community organisations as well as their funding bodies by making the MDS data formats of each state and National an open data service.
